ISSUED EVERY TUESDAY MORNING IN TIME FOR THE MAILS

EUROPE AND EGYPT.

PARIS, Dec. 2.—A party of Englishmen, member of trade unions, visited Leon Say and De Freycinet yesterday. The latter acquainted the callers with his views on the scheme for tunneling the English channel. De Freycinet said the idea of French invasion in the event of channel scheme being carried out was inadmissible, as the English would rise as one man and repel the invasion. Moreover what hostile army would risk an engagement in a narrow tube 40 kilometres long.

LONDON, Dec. 2.—In commons yesterday Sexton submitted documents showing that Connelly, high sheriff and alderman of Drougheda, was a naturalized American citizen. Johnson, attorney-general for Ireland, said he took Connlley's election as alderman as prima facie evidence that he was qualified as an officer, and he (Johnson) could not inquire further.

The consideration of the rules was finished last night. Their passage, completing the business of the session, was greeted with applause,

LONDON, Dec, 3.—The archbishop of Canterbury died this morning. He passed away quietly and apparently without suffering, in the presence of his three daughters, Davidson, his son-in law, Canon Knowellys and Dr. Canlerbury. Saturday he remained in a semi-conscious state, occasionally asking for water. About 11 at night he spoke his last words—"It is coming; it is coming." He was then seized with a sharp spasm and his voice was not heard again, although it is believed he was partly conscious to the end. At 7 in the morning he exhibited signs of dissolution.

It is understood the dean of Westminister, on behalf of the Queen, has offered for the archbishop burial in Westminster Abbey. The decision rests with the deceased's daughters. Muffled peals were rung in the ajacent tower of Croydon, and the archbishop's death was touchingly referred to at the morning service.

DUBLIN, Dec. 3.—Quinn, assistant secretary of the late land league, and Davitt have been served with summons to appear and enter into recognizances for their good behavior. It is expected Healy will be served with a writ on Monday. His present place of residence is unknown. The writ against Davitt is founded on his speech at Navan. The writ was served upon him at the Imperial hotel after 11 o'clock last night. He is required to appear in court at the Queen's bench Tuesday. Davitt says he will appear and defend himself in person and not by counsel. He will probably decline to enter into a recognizance for good behavior, preferring to go to prison.

CAIRO, Dec. 3.—Although secrecy is observed by officials in regard to the court martial, it certainly has been summoned. To-morrow, in consequence of an understanding between Lord Dufferin, the Egyptian government and counsel for the defence, proceedings will be mere formality, and occupy only a day, as both the form of precedurt and the judgment as already been arranged. Bureili Bey has withdrawn from the prosecution, declaring the court martial a complete farce.

LONDON, Dec. 3.—A proclamation, signed by the lord lieutenant, was issued prohibiting a meeting on behalf of the Irish national league, which was to have been held at Limerick to-day and at which it was announced Davitt would speak.

Parliament was prorogued yesterday. The Queen's closing speech says the relations with foreign powers are still amicable, despite the failure of the French commercial treaty. The English and Indian troops in Egypt were thanked. Her obligations in Egypt are increased by recent events. She will endeavor to maintain international engagements, uphold the prestige and promote the happiness of the people, and avoid measures tending to disturb the quiet of the east. She believes her aims would be approved by the powers. The revenue was decreased, but for the gratifying reason of a diminution of duties on intoxicants. She anticipates distress in some parts of Ireland and is pained at the assassination in Dublin. The authorities are especially enjoined to be firm in exercising their powers to make the social condition of Ireland generally improved.

A MINISTER'S EVIDENCE.

The all prevalent malady of civilized life is dyspepsia. Rev. W. E. Gifford, of Rothwell, was cured of dyspepsia and liver complaint that rendered his life almost a burden. The cure was completed by three bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters. (1)

NEVER ALLOW IT.

Never allow the bowels to remain in a torpid condition, as it leads to serious results, and ill health is sure to follow. Burdock Blood Bitters is the most perfect regulator of the bowels, and the best blood purifier known. (2)

LONDON LETTER.

(By Cable.)

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—Special London cables have the following points: The public are again impressed with the extreme gravity of the Irish situation, but the ministers, while admitting that the conflict is serious, profess a confidence in their rapid movements. Trevelyan's statement that he welcomes the approach of the crisis, that is, the conflict between authority and assassins, expresses the feeling of the entire government. The Dublin police since last Saturday's murder regard the struggle as a duel between themselves and the secret societies, which can have but one result. They fully expect that other murders will be committed in pursuance of the assassins' desire to terrorize the judges, juries, police and all officials, but the police are now supported as they never were before, while English opinion upholds the government in any necessary act of energy. Healy will be arrested if he carries out his bravado and Davitt also.

THE PROROGATION OF PARLIAMENT

yesterday was due to the unexpected collapse of the tory opposition to the rules of procedure, and the failure of their efforts to raise debates on the Irish and Egyptian questions. The tories admit that the government carried their proposals substantially as presented, Mr. Gladstone showing a spirit of conciliation only so far as was compatible with practicable tenacity of his purpose. Says the Standard: Mr. Parnell insists that he will still find means to make obstructions and be as mischievous as ever. The opposition generally showed that they were disposed to reduce the rule against moving an adjournment to a practical absurdity. The verdict of the public will depend on the efficiency of rules next session, which the Parnellites fully intend to convert into an Irish session.

ALLISON'S AUTOBIOGRAPHY

Proves to contain some interesting reminiscences of prominent men generally of the time, but abounds, like his history, in solemn absurdities and empty reflections. It contains fresh proofs that Providence is on the side of the tories. It mentions few Americans, but extols the rebel commissioner Mason as a singularly intelligent and agreeable man. It devotes a page to Stonewall Jackson, who, Mason told him, formed his strategy from Allison's campaigns of the Archdude Charles in 1797 and of Napoleon in 1814.

PERSONALS AND BRIEF MENTION.

The Archbishop of Canterbury's successor will probably be the Bishop of Durham.

Fawcett's condition excites the gravest apprehention.

The Bishop of Winchester will, in all likelihood, become primate. He is Dr. Edward Harold Brown, who is nearly 72 years of age, and was a school-fellow of Gladstone at Eton, and was afterward with him at Oxford. They have always been close friends. Brown is a clever man and profound scholar, and has taken a good deal of interest in the old Catholi movement of the continent. He is politically a liberal, and so popular personally that his appointment would give general satisfaction.

Archbishop Tait has borne his sufferings as he has borne many trials of his life, with true christian courage and patience, and he had repeatedly of late expressed his entire readiness to depart and be at rest.

The doctors present as favorable bulletins as they can, but Fawcett's state very low.

Anthony Trollope's condition is such as to leave little hope of his ultimate recovery. From the very first his malady has been more serious than the newspapers have reported.

Since Thursday the whole metropolis has been wrapped in cimmerian darkness.

Rumors have reached the authorities of some projected attempt on the part of fenians to do some mischief on Monday on the occasion of the Queen's procession to open the new royal palace of justice.

A picked force of marines will be sent to Ireland. They will be well armed, and will not hesitate to shoot when it is necessary.

Altogether the prospect for winter is quite as bad as it has been for years past.

Now Mexico.

LORDSBURG, N. M., Dec. 3.—Last evening the south bound coach was stopped by two Mexicans near Yarn's ranch. The robbers took the mail sack from the driver unmolested. They then disarmed the driver and ordered two Chinese passengers to get out of the coach after taking from them everything of value. The robbers then foully murdered them, leaving the bodies of their victims lying at the road side.

Messrs Pfunder & Co., Portland.

GENTLEMEN:—I enclose you P.O.O. for last lot of Oregon Blood Purifier, which came safe to hand. It is a regular CURE ALL. I have got entirely rid of my RHEUMATISM and have cured all kinds of chronic cases by making them go according to the directions, some of them the doctors had given up. Why don't you send a lot out here and start an agency? You could sell any quantity of it, as everybody who has tried it says it is the best medicine they ever took. With many thanks, and wishing you every success,

I remain, yours truly,
W. H. PARSONS,
3m Denver, Colorado.

A FAIR PROPOSITION.

Anyone suffering from habitual constipation, torpidity of the liver, colds, fevers, headaches, restlessness, sleeplessness, indigestion or other ills arising from a disordered or inactive condition of the liver, stomach and bowels, and wishing to give Syrup of Figs a thorough trial, can buy it of Langley, & Co., Druggists, Victoria who will agree to return your money if it fails to act promptly and satisfactorily. (9)

THE great cause of much misery and ill health is a disordered condition of the kidneys; an effectual combination of diuretics is found in Burdock Blood Bitters that thoroughly renovates the kidneys and other important glandular organs, and strengthens the debilitated system. (4)

BURNED ON LAKE MICHIGAN.

Thirteen Lives Lost.

CHICAGO, Dec. 3.—A tug last evening picket up the lake barque A. W. Luckey ten miles down the lake in a disabled condition and towed her into port. The steam barge R. G. Peters was towing the Luckey when suddenly the Peters caught fire, forty miles from Milwaukee, and before aid could be rendered sank stern first with Captain Olsen, mate Larsen and 11 others, who composed the crew. The Peters was a nearly new vessel valued at $32,000.

The statement of the mate of the barge Luckey, which was in tow of the steam barge Peters, gives the following new points of the accident: "Nobody knows the cause of the fire, but the boat burned like tinder. It was our last trip and everybody was in good spirits. The storm increased as we got out from Milwaukee; the wind was terrific, the snow blinding and the sea heavy. The flames were first seen about two o'clock at night. Our line was cut or burned off and we were adrift, with our centerboard lost, our mainsail split and were unable to render any assistance other than to lie around in the neighborhood, which we did until about daylight, but without being able to pick anybody or without seeing anybody afloat. It was pretty tough but it had to be. We saw the barge burn right before our eyes and could not lift a hand to save the poor fellows aboard."

PREPARATION FOR CHRISTMAS.

It will be impossible for us to enumerate the variety of goods which will be arranged before us in anticipation of the coming holidays. The profusion of Christmas and New Year's Cards, both English and the American Prang, the Christmas No. of the London News and Graphic, Illustrated London and other Almanacs. The new and attractive features of juvenile and handsome Gift Books for adults, Pocket and office Diaries, Writing Desks, Photo. and Autograph Albums, and endless other signs of the season.

T. N. HIBBEN & CO.

THE QUESTION OF THE DAY.

"What is good for a child?" is a question often asked, but seldom satisfactorily answered. We can answer to the satisfaction of all, if they will follow our advice and try Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam, a safe, pleasant and certain throat and lung healer. Sold by all druggists. (6)

A. GILMORE,

Merchant Tailor, Johnson street, has just received and is now opening for inspection everything in gentlemen's wear; also, business suits and overcoats of all kinds, which will be sold cheaper than ever before in Victoria; also a large invoice of French whitneys and beaver cloths and fancy cassimeres, West of England cloths and cassimeres, Scotch and Canadian tweeds, which will be made to order in the most approved style.

JAMES CULLEN, Pool's Island, N. F., writes:—"I have been watching the progress of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil since its introduction to this place, and with much pleasure state that my anticipations of its success have been fully realized, it having cured me of bronchitis and soreness of the nose; while not a few of my 'rheumatic neighbors' (one old lady in particular) pronounce it to be the best article of its kind that has ever been brought before the public. Your medicine does not require any longer a sponsor, but if you wish me to act as such, I shall be only too happy to have my name connected with your prosperous child."

AN HONEST OPINION.

John Taylor, of Toronto, says he has tried every known remedy for rheumatism, and can honestly recommend Hagyard's Yellow Oil as the best of all; he has been a sufferer from rheumatic pains for years. (3)

EASE by day and repose by night are enjoyed by those who are wise enough to apply Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil to their aching muscles and joints. A quantity easily held in the palm of the hand is enough to relieve the most exquisite pain. 63

AMONG the most obstinate of chronic diseases to cure is salt rheum. Mr. Isaac Brown, of Bothwell, was troubled with salt heum for years, and says that one bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters has done him more good than $500 paid for other medical treatment. (5)

FELLOWS' Syrup will cure Pulmonary Consumption in the first, and will give great relief and prolong life in the second and third stages.

In restoring persons suffering from the effects of Diptheria and the cough following Tyhoid Fever, prevalent in this region, it acts with expedition and entire satisfaction. *

BEAUTIFUL HAIR is one of the most striking and pleasing characteristics and can easily be obtained by using Cingalese Hair Renewer. Price 50 cents per bottle. For sale by all druggists. dwly

FAREWELL!

To-day the departure of His Excellency the Governor-General and Her Royal Highness the Princess Louise from this province will be an occasion of regret to all and more particularly so to the inhabitants of this city. This is the natural result of their lengthened stay among us. The general urbanity of His Excellency and a growing intimacy with his practical views and statesmanlike qualities, the natural and unaffected demeanor of Her Royal Highness on all occasions, her known partiality for our genial climate and picturesque scenery and hospitable people, and the pleasant manner in which she has made herself at home among us, have been felt and appreciated by all classes. The pleasant anticipations of the royal visit, the first one that this province has experienced, have been more than reasonably fulfilled; and if there is anything that can soften the import of that relentless word "farewell" it must be the thought that mutual benefit and pleasure have been experienced by those who have to say it, and that the results of the visit will not be confined to the present, but in all probability extend far into the future. First and foremost, rest and a genial climate have done much to re-establish the health of Her Royal Highness which was seriously impaired by an accident at Ottawa some years ago. Then His Excellency, who naturally feels a keen interest in every part of the vast Dominion over which he presides, has had an opportunity of seeing a distant and isolated province, the only one he had not visited, and which was hitherto comparatively unknown to the outer world except as a country of magnificent distances, from which Mr. Bunster and Mr. Decosmos made their annual pilgrimages to electrify the Canadian Parliament and draw their mileage and sessional allowances. But the visit of His Excellency and Her Royal Highness has changed all that, and the efforts of the Governor-General to place the various resources and climatic conditions of the province before the world in a practical manner will prove of the greatest possible benefit. Even now the London Times (a former enemy) pats us condescendingly on the back, and the attention not only of this continent but of the English capitalist, well-to-do farmer and emigrant has been attracted to the province. So much has been done by our distinguished benefactors in this direction; but the question comes, what are we going to do for ourselves? Are we going to rest content to let the affairs of the province lie in the hands of any lazy and incapable local government, with no ability for anything but saving cheese parings and securing pelf, with no more idea of governing a province than a barnacle has of steering a ship? In these days of competition other colonies are making energetic bids for population, immigrants sweep by us up the Sound by the thousand; but we have no inducements to offer them. Our land is locked up either for railway purposes or by private speculators. Nevertheless, we cannot expect the business of our cities to increase or the province to progress without an agricultural population, and to secure it we must set our house in order and throw open the railway lands, which His Excellency has already intimated are now in the hands of the local government. It is useless to advertise a house and then tell the people the rooms are all occupied or locked up. His Excellency has done the best he could, and the result must rest with ourselves. Meanwhile, we have plenty of time before the railroad opens to have everything well ventilated and shaken up out of that ignominious state of statu quo in which it has rested for many years. It is not likely that our illustrious guests will visit us again, but the next Governor-General will arrive by the Canada-Pacific, and it is to be hoped that he will find that we have not only profited by the efforts of his predecessor in our behalf, but that we have also managed to shake off our own lethargy and take advantage of our natural resources, even to the extent of making them known to others, and that in his after-dinner speech he may state that his first acquaintance with the province was made through the speech of His Excellency at the Victoria civic banquet, and the excellent maps, pamphlets and guide books circulated abroad concerning it. To our departing royal guests we can only echo the word "Farewell," wishing them all happiness and prosperity, and assuring them that they will be long pleasantly remembered by the people of the province of British Columbia. May favoring breezes waft them safely homeward and may they ever treasure as one of the happiest incidents of their residence in Canada a kindly recollection of their stay in the Pacific province.

The Railway Freights Contract System.

A dispatch from Chicago under date Dec. 3rd possesses peculiar interest to business men on the Pacific coast. It appears that a meeting between the Union Pacific and Central Pacific roads and eastern trunk lines, for the purpose of agreeing upon rates to San Francisco and California points, will be held in New York December 11th. As already stated, the Iowa pool has appointed a commission of general freight agents and Commissioner Midgely to attend the meeting and urge the abolition of the present contract system on California business. This system was inaugurated by the Pacific roads a few years ago to meet the competition of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company. Shippers who pledge themselves to ship their goods exclusively by the Pacific roads are given only about a third of the regular rates, while shippers who refuse to bind themselves to ship exclusively by rail must pay full rates, which are exorbitant in the extreme. The fact that the Pacific roads can afford to take business from contract shippers at one-third of the tariff rates and make money shows how exorbitant the regular rates are. The trunk lines, as well as the Iowa pool lines are strongly opposed to the continuance of the contract system, claiming that it tends to demoralize business and does not help the roads in the least. They said the contract system does not stop competition by the steamship company, but rather aggravates it. The steamship company knows well what contract rates are, and it meets them just as it would meet regular rates if such rates were charged to all shippers. What they want is that freight be made so low as to induce shippers to ship by rail in preference to ocean line, and that all shippers should be treated alike. They will make a strong effort at the meeting at New York to induce the Union and Central Pacific companies to recede from the position they have thus far taken.

Eastern States.

CHICAGO, Dec. 1.—The rolling mills have shut down, throwing 1800 to 2000 men out of work.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—The president has the following communication from Prof. E. Stone Wiggins, LL. D., astronomer of the Canadian finance department, under date of Ottawa, Nov. 27.

"On the 23d of September last I announced through the Canadian press that a great storm would occur in March next; that it would first be felt in the northern Pacific; would appear in the gulf of Mexico on the night of the 7th, and being deflected by the Rocky mountains, would cross this meridian from the west at noon, on Sunday, March 11th, 1883. No vessel, whatever her dimensions, will be safe out of a harbor, and none of the small tonnage can hope to survive the tidal wave and fury of this tempest, as the wind will blow from the southeast. The planetary force will be sufficient to submerge the lowlands of the American coast, especially those bordering on the gulf of Mexico, and washed by the gulf stream, while the air currents for several hundred miles along the east side of the Rocky mountain range, owing to the great atmospheric pressure in these regions, will spread universal destruction. The New England states will also suffer severely from wind and floods. No point outside of harbor in the whole area of the Atlantic, especially north of the equator, will be a place of safety, for this will be pre-eminently the greatest storm that has visited this continent. In view of this event, therefore, I take great liberty in representing to your excellency the advisability of ordering all United States ships into safe harbors, not later than the 5th of March, till this storm be passed.

LATER.—A Toronto press dispatch says Wiggins' standing as a scientific authority is somewhat doubtful.

DENVER, Col., Dec. 3.—The "Republican's" Durango, Col., special says: Last night about 11 o'clock, while Dr. H. A. Clay, a pioneer physician and one of the most eminent citizens, was sitting in his office, his partner, Dr. Evetzky, entered and without warning fired several shots at Clay, and then blew his own brains out with the same revolver, dying instantly. Mr. Clay died this morning. They had been partners for several months in a thriving business. No difficulty was known to have existed between them until yesterday, when Dr. Evetzky received a severe cowhiding from a Mrs. Moore and Miss Hawkins, who accused him of talking about them. Evetzky was under the impression his partner, Dr. Clay, had something to do with his being cowhided, which it is thought led to the fatal shooting.

SECOND DAY.

TUESDAY, Dec. 5, 1882.

ROBBING A TILL.

James Kelly was indicted for aiding Lawrence Mooney in robbing a till on the premises of Thos. Lafont, Johnson street on the 22nd July last.

Lawrence Mooney pleaded guilty to stealing the $3 from Lafont, and stated that Kelly had nothing to do with the offence.

On a jury being empannelled, Mr. Jas. Deans was chosen foreman.

Mr. Harrison explained the indictments against the prisoner and stated the circumstances under which the theft was committed.

Thos Lafont deposed to the commission of the offence with which the prisoner was charged. The two prisoners in the dock and three others entered his saloon on the Saturday night in question—got drinks and demanded cigarettes, which witness would not give them; afwards Kelly tried to occupy witness' attention, and while doing so heard the money rattling in the till; Kelly was detaining him or he would have caught Mooney with his hand in the till; gave the alarm while Mooney was making his way to the door; there were $70 or $80 in the till, of which $30 was silver.

Cross-examined by the prisoner Kelly—Did not remember saying in police court that Kelly was not in his way.

To the Court—Mooney and Kelly had been in his saloon several times before.

To the prisoner—The third man had his clothes cut up, the other two were with witness in the saloon as he asked them to stay.

John E. Westerman corroborated the evidence of former witness.

The evidence of John Jones was also corroborative.

Special officer Lindsay deposed to seeing prisoners in the California saloon on the night in question, and afterwards saw them running the one behind the other on Cormorant street; recognized them as the parties he had seen in the saloon; on going back to the saloon witness heard that the till had been robbed.

The statement of Kelly at the police court was then put in as evidence and the case for the crown closed.

Lawrence Mooney, who had pleaded guilty to stealing the money, was sworn as evidence for prisoner. He stated that Kelly had nothing whatever to do with the offence with which he was charged; he—witness—took the money, $2 50, from the till while intoxicated.

The crown prosecutor, Mr. Harrison, cross-examined witness at some length.

Mr. Harrison, in addressing the jury, pointed out discrepancies in the statements of the prisoners.

His lordship, in summing up the case, remarked on the connection of one man with another in criminal matters. The jury would have to determine as to whether the act of Mooney in stealing the money was the act of Kelly also. The charge against Kelly was that of being an accessory to the fact of stealing the money, and not after it. Was Kelly as guilty as Mooney in going to the saloon for the joint purpose of stealing the money? The jury must be perfectly satisfied that such was the case before they convicted the prisoner. Evidence was then read and commented on. The jury must consider as to whether Kelly in standing before Lafont did so with the intention of intercepting his view of Mooney while robbing the till. Discrepancies in statements were noticed and the jury were informed that those discrepancies were not necessarily criminal, because parties were naturally evasive in the presence of policemen, as they wanted to keep out, or get out of trouble. If the jury were satisfied that Kelly went to the saloon with Mooney for the purpose of robbing the till; or if they were satisfied that Kelly, by sign or otherwise in the saloon was aware that Mooney was committing the robbery, then they would find him guilty. The learned judge's summing up was lengthy and remarkably clear on the points of law bearing on the case, particularly on the phrase "reasonable doubts" in the minds of the jury.

After an absence of about an hour the jury returned with a verdict of not guilty.

AFTERNOON SITTING.

Upon the re-assembling of the court a memorial was presented to his lordship signed by 23 jurymen and witnesses, asking that there be no adjournment of the assizes for county court, in consequence of the distance that many of them lived from the city.

The learned judge remarked that he would be very glad indeed to grant the request of the jurymen; but it had been arranged by the judges that it would be less inconvenient to adjourn the court of assize than the county court, as there were a larger number of cases than usual in that court.

ASSAULTING AND CUTTING.

Thos. Johnson, alias Peter Roe, stood indicted for assaulting and cutting Chas. McMichael on the night of the 22nd July last, on Government street, near King's saloon.

Prisoner pleaded not guilty, and being undefended, Mr. Mills was appointed to watch the case in his behalf.

Mr. Thos. Mitchell was chosen foreman of the jury.

Mr. Harrison explained the nature of the offence with which the prisoner stood charged.

Supt. O'Connor, sworn—The complainant McMichael had left the city for some time; had ascertained that McMichael was really absent from the province; witness certified to his deposition in the police court, and also to the fact of the prisoner having had an opportunity of cross-examing the defendant.

Mr. Mills here called the attention of the court to the fact that the clerk of the police court had no power to administer an oath, and therefore the deposition of McMichael could not be received as evidence.

His lordship, referring to authority, thought he was bound to accept the deposition in question. He must premise that the clerk of the police court had power to administer an oath. A note was taken of Mr. Mill's objection, which was that the police magistrate could not delegate his power to administer an oath, and that Mr. Leigh, the town clerk, had no authority to administer oaths.

McMichael's deposition in the police court was then put in as evidence and read.

Dr. Jackson deposed to attending McMichael after being wounded; his cheek was cut through and the tongue slightly wounded with some instrument, such as a knife; the wound was about three inches long.

Officer Flewin, sworn—Saw McMichael after he received the cut in the left cheek in Dr. Jackson's office; saw him again on board the Dakota; he was then going to Seattle, and he afterwards went to San Francisco; the wound was not healed up when he left which was about a month after it was received; he was an opium smoker.

The case for the prosecution here closed.

After Mr. Harrison had addressed the jury on behalf of the prosecution, Mr. Mills replied at some length to the effect that it was a general row and that it was very probable that the blow was struck from behind and not from the front. McMichael was an invetorate opium smoker, and as such his mind was certainly clouded and dull; and his absence from the country was a suspicious circumstance. He would ask the jury to acquit the prisoner and let him go as he had been punished sufficiently by having been confined in gaol for many months, for being in bad company.

His lordship explained the law as applied to the case before the court.

The jury, after consultation, returned a verdict of not guilty.

ANOTHER TILL ROBBERY.

Charles Williams was indicted for stealing $10 from Mr. Lohse, of the Bank Exchange saloon, Yates street, and a flask of brandy from the bar.

Mr. Mills was appointed by the court to defend the prisoner, who was ultimately acquitted by the jury.

ASSAULTING AN OFFICER.

Chas. Williams pleaded guilty to the charge of assaulting an officer in the execution of his duty.

ATTEMPTING TO ROB A DWELLING HOUSE.

Ah Sam pleaded guilty to the charge of attempting to rob the dwelling house of Mr. Thos. Styles, in Amelia street.

Court adjourned at 7 p.m. till 11 a. m. Friday.

Municipal Police Court.

(Before Hon. A. F. Pemberton.)

TUESDAY, Dec. 5, 1882.

A man charged with being drunk and disorderly was fined five shillings or six hours; he was one of the men who had come on the Dakota, and had received an advance.

Mr. Baker on behalf of Mr. Pollard asked for an adjournment in the case of Moore vs. Gray.

His honor remanded the case until Friday.

ASSAULT.

An Indian named Jim and a man named Lewis Olsen were respectively charged with fighting on Johnson street on the evening of the 3d.

The Indian was fined $5 and $1 costs or 14 days.

The man Olsen who commenced the disturbance was fined $15 or 2 months

SMUGGLING.

The case of Ha Kye charged with smuggling a jar of wine from the steamer Madras on the information of Mr. Hunter of the customs remanded from the 4th inst. was continued.

Mr. Fell appeared for the prisoner.

Mr. Hunter stated the man told him in the road on the evening of the 3d that the jar contained wine and that it was worth $2 and the duty would $1.40.

Ah Fou and the prisoner both testified that the jar did not contain wine but Soi worth 3 cents per lb. in China.

His honor said he would hear the other case before he gave judgment.

Ah Fou was then charged with bringing blankets ashore from the steamer Madras without paying duty.

Mr. Hunter stated that the blankets could not be found and the chief officer a witness in the case had sailed in the Madras.

His honor said the law related to goods which had been seized and discharged the prisoner.

After hearing Mr. Fell in the case of Ah Kye for smuggling wine, his honor said he would discharge the prisoner on his paying 15 cents the duty on Soi.

A Card of Thanks.

The Sisters of St. Ann offer their most sincere thanks to the people of Victoria, of whose kindness they have already had so many proofs for the generosity with which they patronized the bazaar lately held in aid of their institution, the proceeds of which amount to $1,510. Great credit and gratitude are indeed due to the ladies who conducted the bazaar, and who labored so indefatigrbly to make it successful. The kindness of Mr. Lerondo and his amateur band will be gratefully remembered by them.

To all who have contributed toward this charitable work, heartfelt thanks are offered by the SISTERS OF ST. ANN.

A Lame Excuse.

The premier is said to urge as a reason for delaying the calling of the House to that he cannot get word to Kootenay before the 1st of January. A mere subterfuge. There is telegraphic communication from Sandy Point, W. T., with Victoria. Last summer, five days after the election of Mr. Gallbraith by acclamation at Kootenay, the result was known at Victoria. The premier has but to send off a telegram to Sandy Point to-day and Gallbraith will be at his feet by Christmas day. There exists no valid excuse why the demand of the requisitionists should not be complied with and the House convened for dispatch of business before the New Year.

A FRAUD.—Some little time ago a young man calling himself Wm. B. Reid figured for a while in the best society of this city and then went up country as far as Kamloops. After remaining there for a few weeks he returned to this city and very soon left for San Francisco at which city he is still remaining. Several of the up country people were badly victimized by this fraud representing himself as the owner of a large stock ranch in Queensland, Australia. Sundry unpaid accounts amounting in the aggregate to a large sum of money followed him to this city but before they could be put into the hands of the proper authorities for collection or presentation the bird had made his escape to other "woods and pastures new."

INQUEST.—A coronor's inquest was held yesterday afternoon at the police court by Hon. A. F. Pemberton and a jury to enquire into the cause of the death of a man named Harry Wilson about 45 years of age lately from Oregon who died very suddenly in a cabin on Johnson street. The evidence of Dr. Matthews, Wm. Riley, Albert Whitney and officer McLeod was taken which went to prove that deceased was a stranger here and a heavy drinker. After a lengthy investigation a verdict was arrived at that the deceased came to his death through the excessive use of alcoholic liquors.

DIED FROM THE SHOCK.—The Post-Intelligencer states that the wife of Captain Chas. C. Curtis, who accidentally killed himself on Thanksgiving day, dropped dead on the receipt of the news of her husband's death, in San Francisco.

THE SEATTLE ROBBERY.

THE MEN IN CUSTODY FULLY IDENTIFIED

Yesterday's Puget Sound steamer brought Mr. Woolery, chief of the Seattle police, and Mr. Funck, who was terrorized, gagged and robbed at Seattle a few nights ago. Superintendent O'Connor conducted the visitors into the presence of the two men in custody here on suspicion Funck immediately recognized both men. One of the culprits hung his head and said naught. The other denied his guilt, but it was no use. Funck would not be denied and the men are now held for examination and extradition. A man named Lambert, who was seen in company with the pair at Seattle before the robbery, is in custody at Seattle, and when told of the arrest here confessed that he was asked by Wilbert and Dixon to join them in robbing Funck, but that he declined. He adds that neither of the men had more than five or six dollars when they were in his company, whereas the sum of $200 was found on them when arrested by officers Hough and Flewin here. Mr. Theo. Davie has been retained to conduct the case on the part of the U.S. Government. Both prisoners are escapes from the penitentiary.

Cattle Stealing on Salt Spring Island.

For some time past several settlers on Salt Spring Island have been suffering from the depredations of cattle stealers. Hogs as well as cows, steers and calves have been carried off indiscriminately and killed; and the carcasses either disposed of on the island or conveyed elsewhere for that purpose. It is reported that Hutson, J. P. Booth, Crane and Sampson have all lost stock, and although suspicion rests upon certain parties yet so far nothing has been brought home to them. Cattle stealing in outlying districts since the conviction of McNeil for a similar offence in Victoria about a year ago has not been much practised, or at least there have been no complaints of that nature. Nothing is so annoying to stock raisers, to say nothing of the great pecuniary loss, as cattle stealing; and in this province where there are so many facilities for the committal of such crimes, it is only right and proper that such depredations should be dealt with in a very severe manner. The Salt Spring Island cattle stealers whoever they are may rest assured that no leniency will be shown them if brought to justice.

"Both Sides" Demand that the House Shall be Convened.

The local organ of the local Grit government yesterday said:

PETITION.—We understand that a petition signed by some fifteen members of the local house, on both sides of politics, was presented to the provincial secretary yesterday, to be forwarded to his honor, lieutenant-governor Cornwall, requesting him to call the House together at once for the dispatch of business."

"When both sides of politics" are impressed with the grave necessity for the legislature meeting "at once," why should the government hesitate? Why refuse to comply with a demand which "both sides" deem imperative? The proclamation should issue immediately when "both sides" ask for it.

A Well Deserved Decoration.

By mail steamship Dakota on Sunday last Mr. Kenneth Henderson of this city, a member of No. 2 Victoria Rifles, received a beautiful medal for services in the Zulu war in South Africa. He was then a volunteer and armorer sergeant in the Leidenberg rifles and went through the war after the disastrous battle of Isandula. The medal and clasp are a beautiful piece of workmanship. On one side is the head in relief of our gracious sovereign and on the obverse is a lion couchant with a bush in the back ground and Zulu assagais and shield at his feet. On the rim is inscribed Mr. Henderson's name, the name of the corps to which he belonged and the date 1879. The recipient of this acknowledgment of gallant services may well feel proud of the distinction that has thus been so worthily bestowed upon him by Her Majesty the Queen and a grateful country.

Claim to Thetis Island.

We understand that a claim has been set up to Thetis Island, along side the Esquimalt dock, by the heirs of the late Mr. Crittle. It is asserted that the island is included in the deed issued by the old land office. Subsequently Capt. Nagle got possession of it through the land office. The navy next wanted it, and Capt. Nagle surrendered possession and got land elsewhere, for which, we are informed, he paid five dollars, and then Thetis Island was handed over to the navy. It appears, however, that Mr. Crittle never sold it to Capt. Nagle, the navy, or the Colonial Government. Now that it has become very valuable, the widow of Mr. Crittle is pressing the claim. Should it be necessary for dock purposes and the claim be made good, it will cost the province a handsome sum to get it.—Victoria Standard, Oct. 25, 1876.

I, Thomas Waterhouse, of Esquimalt, have bought out all the rights of the heirs-at-law, one of whom resides in England, and having married the widow of the late Mr. Crittle, now sole owner of about three acres of Thetis Island and part of the site of the graving dock. Deeds in my possession fully vest the ownership of the land in Mr. Crittle's heirs, whose rights I have acquired by purchase.

VIEWS OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.—Messrs. Hibben & Co. have sent in a copy of the Illustrated London News of the 4th Nov. which contains several good views of British Columbia; amongst them a large cut of Victoria city.

ANOTHER ARREST.—A man named McIntyre was arrested here last evening on a charge of assault with intent to murder a man at Port Blakeley, some time since. He has expressed his willingness to return and face his accusers.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY.

A Budget of Horrors.

The Seattle Intelligencer says that at the new Sixth street school building in that town, the foreman, with a force of men, commenced bracing up the sides of the structure, when suddenly at three o'clock in the afternoon a heavy gust struck the building and knocked the second story timbers on the west side out. The men underneath saw them coming down and ran from the floor beneath towards the street. One of them was caught by the falling timbers and instantly killed. Another was struck and very seriously wounded and a third was slightly bruised. The young man who was instantly killed was named William Kimes, a native of Indiana, who but recently arrived in Seattle with his wife, to whom he had been married about six months. Charles Jorgenson, the young man who was internally injured, (probably fatally,) is about twenty-three years of age, recently from California. His parents reside at 1362, Seventeenth street, Oakland, California.

The Seattle Chronicle says: About 18 or 20 years ago a bachelor, named G. G. Williams, went into the Puyallup Valley and took up 320 acres of land about three miles above the present location of Puyallup, and proceeded to clear it up. He built a rude log cabin, in which he has ever resided. He attended to his own business, cultivated his farm, lived like a hermit, saved his money, grew rich, and was generally known by the name of "Hog Wilson." He has always had money, and has generally kept it buried about the place, under stumps and trees. Last week he sold his farm, but had not yet given possession of it. He took the money he received for the place, and, contrary to his usual custom, placed it in the bank in New Tacoma. This fact, however, was not generally known, as the sequel shows. Some time during Saturday night a party or parties unknown went to the old man's cabin, beat him over the head, and left him for dead. The cabin was rifled, but whether anything of value was found is as yet unknown. Early Sunday morning Williams was found by some oi his neighbors on the floor of his cabin, apparently in a dying condition. He was taken to Tacoma for medical treatment where he died the same evening.

On the announcement of this terrible crime, the good people of Puyallup raised en masse to ferrit it out and find the perpetrator if possible. Their exertions resulted in the arrest on suspicion of a man named

BURKE,

A barber by profession, who has been employed by Mr. Meeker during the past season as teamster about his farm.

The circumstances which led to his arrest were as follows: A few days ago Burke borrowed a pistol of a man named Pearsol, residing in Puyallup, and has failed to return it. This pistol was found in the cabin the morning after the affray. Burke was also away from home on the night in question, and on his return his legs were badly bruised, and one of his wrists bruised and scratched. A gun, supposed to have belonged to the old man, was found sticking in the mud near the railroad track, and it is thought the assailant had carried it that far, and fearing it would be evidence against him, threw it, as he supposed, into a mud hole, where it would sink out of sight, but one end of it struck first, leaving the stock exposed. Burke explained his bruises by saying he had been out setting bear traps, and on his way home fell over a cow pen and hurt himself. The appearance of the cabin would indicate that the old man had given his assailant a lively tussle.

The Transit of Venus---Communicated.

Wednesday will be looked to as a red letter day in the annals of astronomical science. A transit of the planet Venus will then take place, and not until after the lapse of 121½ years will there be another. The following numbers indicate the number of years which elapse between the transit of this planet across the sun's disc. After the transit of the 6th instant there will be none for 121½ years, then after 8 years there will be another; and not until 105½ years will the next occur, and then the next after 8 years. (121½, 8, 105½, 8, 121½, 8, 105½, 8, etc.) The transits of the inferior planets, we only can see, and of these Mercury has many obstacles to observation. The existence of the planet Vulcan is questionable. There only remains Venus, and she only moves in the same plane as the orbit of the earth after intervals as above given.

Astronomers look anxiously for the present transit, and governments have voted subsidies to enable them to observe it at various points of our globe. Why is so much made of the passage of a little black spot across the sun? It furnishes data by which we can calculate the sun's distance, and knowing this we can calculate the distance, etc., of the other planets which form our system. The sun's distance from the earth may be called the astronomical standard of measurement, and to make measuring standards is difficult, even the yard measure is not an easy thing to make.

For many years we were told that the sun was distant 95,000,000; but after the transit of 1874 it was found to be only 91,000,000, and in these figures there is not perfect confidence. The present transit will give us something near the truth. J. M. D.

MRS. LANGTRY IN NEW YORK

What She Thinks of American Women and Hotels.

She Quarrels with Mrs. Labouchere.

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—A reporter has interviewed Mrs. Langtry. She said: "I have seen some lovely women here, particularly at Delmonico's, but I wonder at their wearing bonnets in the evening. I think they look much prettier without them at that time, particularly in theaters. If American ladies would attend theaters in evening dress, and without hats, the audience would appear to better advantage."

Mrs. Langtry expressed herself as delighted with American hotels. Delmonico's, she thought, was the best in the world.

She will play in Boston two weeks and then go to Philadelphia for one week. She will then return and play one week in Brooklyn.

HER FIRST SLEIGH RIDE.

Another correspondent interviewed Langtry to the following effect: "I like New York ever so much better in its white dress than without it. You wish I would take the snow away with me? I have had two sleigh rides here, the first of my life. Aren't they jolly? We went out through the park in a helter skelter way, and the crowd of sleighs, jingling bells and fast horses with these funny things on their heads, have a great charm for me. I never saw but one sleigh in my life until I came here, and never saw such fast trotting horses as you have. It is a wonder to me that everybody does not run into everybody, considering the way they drive on the avenue.

The reporter asked Mrs. Langtry if on her return to England she intended to follow up her newly-chosen profession. She answered with a very affirmative nod.

DISLIKE AT CRITICISMS.

It is said Mrs. Langtry is greatly disappointed at the reception accorded her by the New York press, and no wonder, for the treatment she had at the hands of the press has been something unique in her experience. The fact is most English papers, having a fear of the Prince of of Wales and of the best society before their eyes, toadied in the humblest fashion to the stage-struck Langtry, and dared not express their honest opinions. We know that there is not an honest-speaking in the English press, for they admit it themselves. They are printing at length the adverse criticisms of American papers. They seem to be glad that Americans are disposed to talk out plainly, and say, in effect, that there is substantial truth in this merciless condemnation of her acting. One cannot but admire the courage with which Mrs. Langtry smilingly faces her daily toil, notwithstanding criticisms that seem most bitter in their severity. She has not been able to devote any time to society, and it is yet to be learned that the so-called best society of New York has extended her any social recognition whatever.

WHAT SHE COST NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Dec. 3.—The Times has this: Mr. Abbey made public last evening a statement of the receipts at Wallack's Theater during the four weeks' engagement of Mrs. Langtry, ending last night. The statement is as follows: First week, "An Unequal Match," $18,765; second week, "As You Like It," $15,567; third week, "As You Like It," $12,532; fourth week, "The Honeymoon," $13,938; total, $61,813, Mrs. Langtry's engagement, he says, has been from a financial point of view the most successful one ever played by any theatrical star in the United States.

THE LATEST BIT OF GOSSIP.

The Tribune reports that there has been a serious and fatal quarrel between Mrs. Langtry and Mrs. Labouchere, resulting in the latter's withdrawal from the society of her former friend.

It is rumored Mrs. Labouchere quarreled with Mrs. Langtry because the Jersey Lily flirted on the stage with the occupants of boxes at Wallack's Theater and visited the boxes between the acts.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

Advice to Invalids—If you wish to obtain quiet, refreshing sleep, free from headache, relief from pain and anguish, to calm and assuage the weary achings of protracted disease, invigorate the nervous media, and regulate the circulating systems of the body, you will provide yourself with that marvellous remedy discovered by Dr. J. Collis Browne (late Army Medical Staff), to which he gave the name of CHLORODYNE and which is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for Coughs, Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation, and Spasms.

CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer, Toothache, Meningitis &c.

From Symes & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemists, Medical Hall, Simla, January 5th, 1880. To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 33, Great Russell street, Bloomsbury, London. Dear Sir,—We embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the wide-spread reputation this justly esteemed medicine, Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne, has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan, but all over the East. As a remedy of general utility, we much question whether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are happy to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent. We could multiply instances ad infinitum of the extraordinary efficacy of Dr. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne in Diarrhœa and Dysentery, Spasms, Cramps, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy and as a general sedative, that have occurred under our personal observation during many years. In Choleraic Diarrhœa, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's, from a firm conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a DELIBERATE BREACH OF FAITH ON THE PART OF THE CHEMIST TO PRESCRIBER AND PATIENT ALIKE. We are, Sir, faithfully yours, Symes & Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain, His Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists.

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. Page Wood stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was undoubtedly the Inventor of Chlorodyne; that the story of the defendant Freeman was deliberately untrue, which, he regretted to say, had been sworn to.—See "The Times," July 13, 1864.

Sold in bottles at 1s. 1½d., 2s. 9., 4s 6d and 11s. each. None is genuine without the words "Dr. J Collis Browne's Chlorodyne" on the Government stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

Caution—Beware of Piracy and Imitations.
